Department of Revenue

Circular

17/16/2004-RD

It has been observed that scant attention is paid by the Office of the Administrator of Comunidade and the Collectorate in scrutinizing the cases of allotment of Comunidade land with auction.

Following is the uniform procedure to be followed in the case of allotment of Comunidade land by auction by all Administrators of Comunidades.

1. Under Article 329, applications should be made by the interested applicants addressed to the Government and submit it to the office of the Administrator concerned. Applications should have the following enclosures, alongwith deposit of Rs. 2500/- as processing expenses.

- (a) Form I & XIV
- (b) Site Plan
- (c) Survey Plan
- (d) Residential Certificate
- (e) Valid NOC from the Town & Country Planning Department.
- (f) Certificate from the concerned attorney of the Comunidade stating that the plot applied for is free for allotment and the party applying for, it is necessary that he/she should be a landless in Goa alongwith sworn affidavit.
- (g) The bidder participating for the auction should take the necessary enquiry report (NOC) from the concerned Comunidade three days before the said auction.

2. Under Article 330, the request of the applicant under Article 329 should be published in two continuous Gazette and two newspapers calling for objections. The time limit is 30 days.

3. When no objection is received, the Administrator should forward the application to the Comunidade concerned for their consent. If an objection is received then it is the duty of the Administrator to examine the objection and pass an order with reasons either sustaining the objection or overruling the objection.

4. If the Comunidade does not give consent, it is the duty of the Administrator to examine the merit of the decision taken by the Comunidade and give his ruling in the matter for consideration of the Government.

5. In the event of the fulfillment of the above requirements, the Administrator should carry out a site inspection of the plot of land in question alongwith the surveyor, representative of Comunidade and the interested party. The value of the land should be ascertained at the stage with the help of sales statistics from the Mamlatdar's office and the prevailing market price.

6. The annual lease rent for the plot of land should be fixed in the following manner.

Market value X area of the land divided by 20. This would constitute the initial auction bid.

7. Auction notice of 15 days should be given in the Gazette and newspapers as per Article 334.

8. (i) On the day of the auction if there are no bidders then the plot will stand allotted to the applicant on payment of one year's lease rent as laid out at (6) above.

(ii) If any person other than the applicant is present and wants to participate that person should be allowed to participate upon filing of an affidavit stating the residential status. Such a person should also deposit EMD of an amount equivalent to five times the initial bid fixed.

9. In the event of the applicant winning the bid, one year's lease rent is to be immediately deposited in Administrator Office and the file should be sent to the Collector and the Government for approval.

10. In the event of any person other than the applicant winning the bid then such person should not only deposit one year's lease rent but also double the cost incurred by the applicant for processing the file on the spot. The EMD in such a case may be adjusted against the above payments. In the event of such a person failing to deposit the lease rent or double the cost on the spot that person will forfeit his EMD in which case the second highest bid and so on should be considered for acceptance and fulfillment of payment conditions as laid down above. Only cash payment should be accepted. Thereafter, the file should be sent to the Collector and Government for approval.

D. M. Redkar, Under Secretary (Rev-I).
